The Anderson Graduate School of Management
University of California Riverside is pleased to announce

2015 Citrus Finance Conference

April 24, 2015
9:00 AM – 5:30 PM

Canyon Crest Country Club
975 Country Club Dr., Riverside, CA 92506

Conference Theme: How is Corporate Information Actually Disseminated into the Markets?

Paper Presentations:

Andrew Karolyi, Cornell University, Chief Editor of Review of Financial Studies
The Economic Consequences of Investor Relations: A Global Perspective

Ivalina Kalcheva, University of California Riverside
Investment Opportunities, Innovation, and Venture Capital

Kai Li, University of British Columbia
National Culture, Corporate Governance Practices, and Firm Performance

David Solomon, University of Southern California
What Are We Meeting For? The Consequences of Private Meeting with Investors

Sarah Zechman, University of Chicago
Run EDGAR Run: SEC Dissemination in a High-Frequency World

Lunch will be provided
Hosted reception to follow the program
Dress code: Business Casual

Space is limited: RSVP to Angela Chang angela.chang@ucr.edu until April 10th.